Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles
28th October 2018

'Your word, O Lord, will last for ever, it is eternal in heaven'

Psalm 119: 89

A PRAYER OF PREPARATION

Saving God, open the gates of righteousness that we may draw near to you and be built into a living temple. Amen.

COLLECT

Almighty God, who built your Church upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, with Jesus Christ himself as the chief cornerstone: so join us together in unity of spirit by their doctrine, that we may be made a holy temple acceptable to you; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen.

POST COMMUNION COLLECT

Lord God, the source of truth and love, keep us faithful to the apostles' teaching and fellowship, united in prayer and the breaking of bread, and one in joy and simplicity of heart, in Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen

FIRST READING

ISAIAH 28: 14-16

Isaiah offers the image of unshakable sanctuary of God's own building- 'a precious cornerstone, a sure foundation'.

SECOND READING

EPHESIANS 2: 19-22

The metaphor of a building as an image of the church was much used by Paul, it is always, the faith and hopes of believers, which 'are built together spiritually into a dwelling place for God'

GOSPEL

JOHN 15: 17-27

The apostles of the early church, Simon and Jude amongst them, were part of the foundations upon which the faith of the historical church was to be built, and they all bore the brunt of the initial storms and waves which beat against the seemingly frail structure in its earliest days.

For your Prayers - The Diocesan Follow Prayer

God who in Jesus calls us - open hearts and minds to your invitation.
God of the pilgrim way - be our companion day by day.
God of the still, small voice - teach us to pray.
Grant that in our calling, our following, our pilgrimage, we may see your kingdom of truth and peace - and delight to bring others to your love. We make this prayer through Jesus, the Lord. Amen.

A Message from Rev. Peter

Good News and Answers to Prayer!

Peter and Joan Houghton heard on Thursday 18th that the tests from the op that Peter had in September showed that no melanoma skin cancer cells could be detected in the area from his shoulder that had been cut out and that there is no record of it having spread elsewhere. We are very conscious of lots of prayers for us and want to thank God for those, for His healing power working through those who treated Peter and for the NHS generally.

May the infinite and glorious Trinity, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, direct our life in good works, and after our journey through this world grant us eternal rest with all the saints. Amen.
